

Terms of use

These Terms of Use are applicable to all users of the Live Access Server. Users should read, understand and accept these Terms when accessing this service. If a given user has not done this, or does not agree with the contents of these Terms of Use, that user should not create an account on the Website and should not make use of any of the services provided.

By accepting these Terms of Use, the user enters into an agreement with The Cyprus Institute made up by the contents of these Terms, in order to regulate the user's access and use of the Live Access Server. Users which accept these Terms of Use hereby represent and warrant that:

They accept to be bound by these Terms of Use, either individually, or in representation of an organisation;

They are at least 18 years old;

They are capable, under the terms of the law applicable to them, to be legally bound by and comply with these Terms of use;

Their use of the Live Access Server will be carried out in accordance with all applicable laws and regulations.

For information on the processing of personal data on users which is carried out via the Live Access Server, please see the privacy policy.

1. Services provided

LAS enables the web user to:

- visualize data with on-the-fly graphics
- request custom subsets of variables in a choice of file formats
- access background reference material about the data (metadata)
- compare (difference) variables from distributed locations

LAS enables the data provider to:

- unify access to multiple types of data in a single interface
- create thematic data servers from distributed data sources
- offer derived products on the fly
- remedy metadata inadequacies (poorly self-describing data)
- offer unique products (e.g. visualization styles specialized for the data)
